Chicago, Illinois Chapter - American Singles Golf Association - April 2009

LADIES' NIGHT AT GOLF GALAXY - APRIL 7TH

MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT FORCADE

Spring has finally arrived, the Golf Tee-Off party is Saturday, April 4, and the first golf event is Broken Arrow on Saturday, April 25 in Lockport. This long, cold winter is finally coming to an end. We have a fantastic season planned!

For those of you concerned about cold weather lasting too long in Chicago, the Peachtree City Chapter of ASGA is sponsoring the Spring Fling multi-chapter golf weekend again on April 24-26 south of Atlanta. Details on this are on the National website at www.singlesgolf.com/events. For Memorial Day, National also has over 100 registered (the limit is 288 players) for May 22-25 at the Homestead Resort in Hot Springs, Virginia. All of the details on the Homestead Resort Memorial Day weekend event are at www.singlesgolf.com/homestead.

Our Chicago Membership Committee is working on new activities and promotional materials to expand our local membership this year. Our Golf Committee has planned multiple events each weekend, so you can find at least one event close to home. The net effect is that events may fill up faster, so you will need to sign up early to make sure you have a spot. Get ready for a great golf season, but make your reservations early!

PAST EVENTS

March Mingle at Binny's

Twelve men and two lucky women hung out at Binny's winebar for the March Mingle, catching up on winter stories and golf courses to be played in 2009. We welcomed a new member, Bob O'Donnell, all the way from Schererville, Indiana. Tim recruited a few new coordinators, and Bob A. and Stephanie hit the humidior for cigars to go. Paul G., how was the rum? Thanks, Binny's, for hosting our March Mingle.

TopGolf

Although the turnout for our TopGolf event was lower than originally anticipated due to a last-minute change in the bowling schedule, the 15 members and guests who participated had a great time. The golfing was good, the appetizers were delicious, and fun was had by all.

California Night at Binny's

Armed with personal wine glasses, six Chicago ASGA members mingled and drank 75 of California's best wines from reds to whites – and don't forget the sparkling varieties! We learned to swirl, smell and sip. It was really fun to sample and note our favorites with other wine-o-philis. When all was said and done, we purchased a few bottles. Did you know that Fess Parker has a winery? To cap off the evening, we stopped at the wine bar for appetizers and great conversation, giving us a chance to catch up from last summer.

UPCOMING ACTIVITIES

Golf Galaxy Supports Chicago ASGA Membership Drive!

Wednesday, April 1

Many thanks to Golf Galaxy of Chicago – Skokie, Naperville, Gurnee, Schaumburg and Orland Park. On Wednesday, April 1, visit Golf Galaxy's Nike Night, where the Membership Committee will be recruiting new members. Stop by and meet some potential members. While you're there, make a purchase and enter the Nike raffle. Who knows? It could be your lucky day.

Prepare for the Summer Links & Tees Golf Dome, Addison

Bill Forcade is hosting practice sessions at the Links & Tees Golf Dome, 880-950 W. Lake Street, on Sundays at 3:00 p.m. until the golf season starts, and we usually have dinner nearby afterwards. Come one, come all, no reservations needed. Check the e-mail blast each week to see if the event is cancelled for any reason.

Tee-off Dinner Saturday, April 4 at 6:00 p.m. Maggiano's, Oak Brook

Ninety Chicago ASGA members will celebrate this year's biggest and best golf schedule ever on April 4 at Maggiano's in Oak Brook. Reunite with old golf friends and make new ones! Get ready to dance the night away with an ASGA fave, Slip Mickey. Dinner will include two appetizers, two salads, two pastas, two entrees, desserts, coffee and three drink tickets. We look forward to seeing you there!

Ladies' Night Tuesday, April 7 Golf Galaxy

Attention Lady Golfers – Golf Galaxy is opening its doors to ladies only on Tuesday, April 7. Visit your nearest Golf Galaxy for snacks, goodie bags, demonstrations, raffles and maybe even a discount. Grab your gal pals and stop in and check out the latest woman-specific technology and fashion currently gracing the links. Sorry, guys, you will be turned away at the door.

Golf Coordinators' Meeting & Mingle Wednesday, April 8 at 6:30 p.m. Aurelio's Pizza, Addison

The Golf Committee is looking for volunteers to run and assist at many of the scheduled golf events this season. Come out and learn how easy it is to run the event and help your organization grow. Everything you need to know will be discussed. There will be pizza, salad and soft drinks provided at no charge. Just e-mail Tim Dowling at timdowling00@yahoo.com to let him know you are coming. The address is 1455 W. Lake Street in Addison (just east of I-355). This meeting will be combined with our April Mingle, so all members are encouraged to attend.

Chicago/Michigan Challenge July 31 – August 2 Augusta, MI

As the 2009 golf season swiftly approaches, it is not too early to mark your calendar for special events on ASGA Chicago's schedule. One event that is going to require earlier commitment than usual is the Fourth Annual Chicago/Michigan Challenge. This year, we are fortunate to have secured lodging right on the golf course property at a rate far superior to other years. The reason for this early alert is that space is limited, and the resort's deadline is much earlier than in the past. Here are the details:

Where: Yarrow Golf Course & Lodge, Augusta, MI

When: Friday, July 31 to Sunday, August 2

Included: Two nights' lodging at Yarrow, two breakfasts, Saturday night dinner buffet and three rounds of golf at Yarrow (with the option to play at Angel Crossing or Gull Lake on Friday). Please note that Friday night's off-site dinner at Clara's in Battle Creek is not included.

Cost: Double occupancy is $345 per person (non-compete is $325) / single occupancy is $460 per person (non-compete is $440).

Competition requirements: Must have an approved USGA/CDGA handicap
Deadlines: April 15 (or until space is gone) – e-mail Tom Ullsperger at tomu7@hotmail.com. A deposit of $100 made out to ASGA Chicago should be sent to Tom Ullsperger, 16045 Forest Avenue, Oak Forest, IL 60452.

WEEKLY E-MAILS

If you are not receiving the weekly e-mail blasts from our Communications Chair, Will Hsiung, you may need to add his e-mail address (whsiung@comcast.net) to your address book or safe list. Apparently some members have not been receiving the e-mails, which were being routed to their spam folder. For help on this, go to images.ed4.net/images/htdocs/addressbook/. If you don't have an email address, call any of the Board Members listed in this newsletter for more information on any event.

UPDATE YOUR NATIONAL MEMBER PROFILE

If you want to update your membership information on the National website, get your ASGA membership number from your membership card or your copy of the monthly newsletter and go to the National website at <http://www.singlesgolf.com/roster.php>. If you don't have a password, you can request one from National. Enter your membership ID and password, and you can edit your membership information to include your cell phone number.

PHOTOS

Anyone who takes photos at the events may send them to Robert Geeve (rgeeve@sbcglobal.net) for inclusion on the website. Please be sure to zip the file before sending; contact Robert if you need help with zipping the file.

Rules and More Rules

Q. Larry the rules czar puts on a big show when putting. If he were younger, he would do the spider man thing on the green. He takes off his glove. He does a 360 of the hole. He throws clippings in the air. You know the drill. I think he particularly like leaves on the green. He attacks them like a swash buckler knocking them off his line of putt with great flurries of his hat. Tom joined us one day last fall. Tom used about a 15 strokes of the palm of his hand in an attempt to remove the leaves in his line of putt. Larry, the swash bucking leaf attacker said, sorry Tom, that's going to cost you some strokes. Come to think of it, maybe that's why I like Larry. We seem to always be able to play as a twosome.

What is the correct penalty, if any?

- A. No harm no foul, both Tom and Larry can remove leaves along the line of putt.
- B. Both Tom and Larry are in error, they cannot tamper with the line of putt. Two stroke penalty.
- C. Only Larry was in error, he can not use a man made object to remove the leaves, might as well bring a leaf blower. Two stroke penalty.
- D. Only Tom was in error, he can not use his hand to brush off leaves along the line of putt. Two stroke penalty.

And the answer is.... D
Tom incurs a two stroke penalty. USGA rule 16 pertains to the putting greens. Rule 16-1 allows loose impediments (leaves) to be removed providing nothing is pressed down. Rulings allow towels or hats to be used. In general, the line of putt can not be touched and USGA decision 16-1a/9 supports that using the palm of the hand along the line of putt to wipe away leaves is a violation, two stroke penalty.

ASGA NATIONAL NEWS

AMERICAN SINGLES GOLF ASSOCIATION — APRIL, 2009

150 ALREADY REGISTERED FOR MEMORIAL DAY EVENT

Event Dates: May 22-25, 2009

A Great Weekend Planned at Homestead Resort

Life is good as those tee-shirts remind us. And while everyone else is talking about the economy, ASGA members are doing something about it. They're registering in record numbers to attend a fun-filled weekend at The Homestead Resort and Spa in Hot Springs, Va. Over the years, 26 presidents of the United States have visited The Homestead. The year, chapter presidents and many of their members will be in attendance for this Memorial Day weekend.

Single? Play Golf? That's what we do and this is the weekend NOT to miss. Our target is 288 golfers playing 2-3 rounds over the four-day period. Details are at SinglesGolf.com/homestead and you can certainly review the enclosed registration form. You can register now and the hotel will not charge the package price until April 22. We have many other events scheduled for you this year as well. All events are posted at SinglesGolf.com/events

Using MeetUp.com To Grow Your Chapter

by David Greiner, President, Fredericksburg Chapter—ASGA

The Fredericksburg Chapter of ASGA started from scratch to build the chapter initially with two former members of the Washington DC Chapter and supported by a third DC Chapter member. The "Burg" is using a website called Meetup.com as a communication tool for its members and a means to let the entire community know what is going on in their little world. Meetup.com is a social networking tool available on the internet for any type of group and believe me they have some strange ones out there. If you are looking for friends to play golf with, hike, kayak, or study supernatural beings from a far planet, Meetup.com has a place for you. Initially, David Greiner, Chapter President of Fredericksburg ASGA viewed Meetup.com as a means to advertise the creation of F'burg ASGA and only intended to use this for a nominal period while the chapter was forming. However, Meetup.com offers every aspect of any organization to run, communicate, and just stay in touch with its members. Scheduling events was never so easy!

Meetup.com allows the organizer to schedule events and email them directly to the members. In turn the member can RSVP for themselves and a friend or two. Both positive and negative RSVP's are accepted, and each member can make a comment. After an event, Meetup.com offers each member to make comments about the event, the venue, and just about anything. It has total interactive capabilities to communicate between the members. As a social networking tool, Meetup.com can work for you organization. Meetup.com can be a public forum or set as a private organization as to where an individual inquiring about joining would have to email the organizer of the group to request membership. The drawbacks to meetup.com are few, but one that comes to mind is that a member of your organization in meetup.com does not necessarily mean they are a member or your organization. In our case, MeetUp is a shell for Fredericksburg ASGA. Currently, we are treating those non-

 MAKING IT WORK FOR YOUR CHAPTER

ASGA members on our site as guests and as in all guests when they overstay their welcome without becoming a full-fledged member of ASGA, Meetup.com offers the ability of the organizer to remove a member from meetup.com. The best part of Meetup.com that I like as the Chapter President is the immediate feedback you get from members. One of my members RSVP'd 'maybe' to an event because she will be in the process of moving – she had the opportunity to ask for assistance on a note while RSVP'ing and a few of us have come to her rescue to help support that member, and maybe she can attend the scheduled event as well.

Meetup.com works well as a great communication tool, but as like all great computer programs, they have to be manipulated and just don't happen automatically. Someone has to set up the events, and people have to view their emails and respond to events.

The initial organizer of Meetup.com can assign assistant organizers to the organization that have access to schedule events, post messages, and start a message board string that members can respond to.

In an organization like ASGA, the Golf Chair would have full control over scheduling of golf outings, the Social Chair could set up the social events, and the Communication Chair has a one-stop shop for getting the word out to the members.

Since meetup.com is a public forum, which works best to keep your organization out there in the limelight (we tried the private route), when a new member joins your meet-up, it is up to someone to inform them what the ultimate goal is – becoming a member of ASGA. This is where the Membership Chair would have to communicate to the potential new members that your particular meet-up group is more than just a website for social-networking. So now that the Golf Chair, Social Chair, Membership Chair, and Communications Chair have a function on Meetup.com, what does the President do? Well, someone has to oversee the entire process. And a bonus to meetup.com, although it is not used in the Fredericksburg Chapter, there is a financial tool to track monies coming in and going out. Wow, the perfect organization!

Not everything is perfect, but the energy put into the site can gain rewarding benefits coming out. Meetup.com does cost to run, and the Fredericksburg Chapter of ASGA has tested this concept with a trial 3-month run, which cost $45 to the chapter. A six-month subscription to MeetUp.com costs $72.

Feel free to browse through our MeetUp site by going to the link below and you can view our members (some have photos attached to their profiles). You can view photos of our outings and social events, and read about what the members are doing within the chapter:
