

CHICAGO SINGLES GOLF

Chicago, Illinois Chapter - American Singles Golf Association - September 2009

CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP AT ST. ANDREWS - SEPTEMBER 19 & 20

HOLE-IN-ONE!!!

Big congratulations to Elaine Rodriguez, who scored her first hole-in-one at Willowcrest Golf Club in Oak Brook. It was the third hole, a 116-yard Par 3, and she chose just the right club to do the job – a Callaway eight-iron (her new best friend). Elaine will receive from the course a plaque with her name and a picture of the hole, but if she had done this at an ASGA outing, she would also receive a $250 prize from the Chapter. Again, Elaine, many congratulations on this exciting accomplishment!!!

MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT FORCADE

We are entering the home stretch for the golf season, with only nine events left in September and October. Where did the season go?! Let's make the final two months a real treat by having a huge turnout at each event, so sign up early.

The By-Law Amendments passed by a vote of Yes = 90, No = 2. Term limits for elected officers have now been eliminated. I will circulate the request for nominations for President in September by e-mail, with voting to take place in October. The request for nominations for the remaining elected officers (the Social Committee Chairperson, the Golf Committee Chairperson, the Membership Committee Chairperson and the Communications Committee Chairperson) will be circulated by e-mail in October, with voting to take place in November. If you would like to assist ASGA on a more active basis, please consider running for elected office.

We posted a new advisory to the web page regarding skin cancer. Golfers are a high-risk group for this particular malady (as I found out personally). I encourage you to read the advisory and have routine screenings by a qualified dermatologist.

Keep up the enthusiasm as we move to the end of the season and, above all, have fun!

MESSAGE FROM HANDICAP CHAIR DOWLING

In the next few weeks, many of you will be receiving Handicap Renewal requests from your CDGA Member Club (including ASGA). This is a great time to transfer your registration to ASGA and save money. Remember, it only costs $20 to renew through me (ASGA Chicago Handicap Chairman). More information will be posted in the October Newsletter and on the ASGA website.

MESSAGE FROM GOLF CHAIR DOWLING

The fall season is one of the best opportunities to enjoy the beautiful outdoors. Even though ASGA does not have a formal "fall season," I would encourage all of you to contact a course you like and make tee times for eight players and then get the info out to the membership. This is a great way to extend the golf season. Don't forget, there are a number of members who can get away during the week, so don't limit yourself to the weekends. It is just as nice on a Tuesday or Wednesday, and deals are available!

PAST EVENTS

The Links at Carillon, 8/1

The rain/drizzle for much of the day did not dampen the spirits of this hardy group of golfers. Event coordinator Hank Calzaretta awarded prizes to the following people: Lois Porebski (closest to the pin); Haseena Shaheed and Kevin Berg (longest drive); and Carol Otto and Ron Benson (longest putt). He would have liked to present a closest to the pin prize for the men, but nobody hit the green on that particular hole! Almost everyone stayed afterwards for dinner and awards in the bar at the course.

Michigan Rallies Past Chicago to Keep Cup

The fourth annual Chicago/Michigan Challenge Cup was held the first weekend of August at the Yarrow Golf & Resort Center in Augusta, Michigan. For many, this event has become an eagerly anticipated event on the ASGA calendar. In another tightly contested competition, the Michigan chapter rallied on the second day to win by a score of 29 to 26.

While the results fell short of expectations, the highlight of the weekend was playing and staying at the stunning Yarrow property. The Chicago Chapter numbered 40 competitors and supporters, who all thoroughly enjoyed the rustic beauty of the rural setting. With the wonderful services of the resort staff, a good time was had by all.

The first day started out with blue skies, comfortable temperatures and high hopes for each team. The Team Match Play saw six of the eleven matches go to the 9th hole, with five of the matches being halved. Winning pairs for Chicago were: Don Hanson & Susan Ouchterloney, Don Stoub & Lisa Pesavento, and Brian Krauss & Jeanne Schneeberger. At the turn, the event was tied at 5½ each.

The Scramble format for the back nine was Chicago's best session. As the clouds and rain began to roll in, Team Chicago played its best golf, taking the session 6½ to 4½. Winning for Chicago were the pairs of: Ted Zillmer & Lou Delaney, Lee Fayette & Terry Ready, Marty Gangler & Debora Braun, Brian Krauss & Jeanne Schneeberger, and Jane Leary & Mary Lou Newbold.

With Chicago going into Day Two with a two-point advantage, hopes were high for the Alternate Shot. Under sunny skies, light breezes and ideal conditions, Michigan played well in the format, reversing Saturday's back nine result. Going to the final format, the match would be tied at 16½ each. Winning combinations for Chicago were: Michael Daugherty & Jane Leary, Don Stoub & Lisa Pesavento, Dave Moretti & Deb Bradel, and Joe Torcivia & Mary Lou Newbold.

The Individual Match Play would turn out to be the difference in the competition. After some early victories by Team Chicago, Michigan grabbed control with a run of seven out of eight matches in the middle of the pairings. While Chicago had some moderate success thereafter, the deficit was too much to overcome, with Michigan keeping the trophy by a score of 29 to 26. Individual winners for Chicago were: John Silius, Michael Daugherty, Jane Leary, Nancy Hill, Terry Ready, Lisa Pesavento, Tom Cech, Alice Zyks and Tom Ullsperger.

Jazzin' at The Shedd, 8/6

Twelve appreciative ASGA members and friends enjoyed a special evening of great jazz on the north terrace of the Shedd Aquarium on August 6. The terrace resembled the deck of a ship overlooking the lake, and we delighted in perfect weather, a beautiful and majestic skyline with a magical sunset, followed by a full moon. We all left smiling, happy to be living in a world-class city. The cost – $12. The evening – priceless.

Wilmette Golf Club, 8/8

Over 50 golfers, including eight nine-holers, played on this hot, steamy day in Chicago. In spite of the heat and the fact that over half the group walked the course, everyone managed to finish in less than 4½ hours. In fact, the starter even commented that he wished all outings were so well handled (thanks to coordinators Jane Leary and Stephanie Corredino, along with assistants Mary Lou Newbold, Jay Thompson and Allen Chester). Prizes were awarded for: closest to the pin – Jane Leary, Mary Jo Metz, Knoxie Overton, Bill Forcade and Brett Bradfield; longest drive – Linda Googins and Paul

Coyote Run Golf Course, 8/9

On perhaps the hottest, most humid day of the year, we were all especially grateful for the strong breeze, particularly the brave souls who chose to walk the course. Coordinator Brian Krauss was unable to attend (rumor has it he stayed inside in the air conditioning all day), so Margaret Muller, Nancy Hill, John Silius and Bill Forcade graciously stepped in to run the outing. The skills contest winners were: Jeff Dolan and Patsy Albrecht both won twice for closest to the pin; Kathi Maraffino and Robert Geeve won longest putt; Bill Forcade and Kathi Maraffino won farthest from the pin; and Paul Gentile hit the most greens in regulation. Fortunately, or unfortunately as the case may be, no one reported seeing any coyotes all day.

Fox Bend Golf Course, 8/15

This was another beautiful day on the golf course, with about a third of the players opting to walk. The following prizes were awarded: closest to the pin – Patrice Jordan and Kurt Kupitz (who confidently wrote “can’t touch this” on the card); closest to the pin on the second shot – Don “Butch” Hanson and Kathy Braun; longest putt – Pat Porter, Robert Geeve and Irene Jones; the drawing winners for those who made it onto the green from the tee shot – Debora Braun and Carl Wagner; least putts – Chris Coyne; and most putts – Carl Wagner. The golf course also donated two gifts of two rounds of golf with cart, which were won by Debbie Bradel and Brian Carlin. Coordinator Debora Braun was especially grateful for her able assistants, Marty Gangler and Kerry Malm, who did a great job of keeping things running smoothly. And kudos to the creative “no whining” group who improvised when a contest card was forgotten on the 18th green, and they found a piece of paper to write the names and then held it to the green with a couple tees. Good thinking!

Fox Lake Country Club, 8/16

The golf gods were smiling on us today, as we only got drizzled on while the downtown area of Fox Lake endured a downpour. Due to the large size of this outing – 64 enthusiastic players – we enjoyed a shotgun start at noon and were all able to head over to the restaurant afterwards together. The couples team format we tried using the Peoria System received great comments. And we instituted a rule where no one, with the exception of team prizes, could win more than one prize in order to “share the wealth.” The winners were: Debora Braun and Dave Colbert (closest to the pin); Margaret Muller and Dave Allen (accuracy drive); Lisa Bishoff and Jan Mousley (longest drive); Marie Di Virgilio and Bob Almada (longest putt); and Donna Wiggins and Jeff Dolan (longest drive – miles to get there). The Team Match competition gross score winners were: First Place – Lisa Bishoff and Michael Daugherty (86); and Second Place – Elaine Rodriguez and Jeff Dolan (91). The Team Match net score winners were: First Place – Margaret Muller and Lee Fayette (63), and Second Place – Deb Brice and Gregg Straley (66). Almost the entire group headed to Gino’s Trattoria for the awarding of the prizes, where coordinators Jay Thompson and Penny Link and their assistants were finally able to relax after all their hard work in putting together this fantastic outing!

Big Run Golf Club, 8/23

This gorgeous and challenging course was especially fun because of the perfect weather and great camaraderie. Forty-eight golfers showed up full of energy and ready to take on the day. Golf Chair Tim Dowling ran a putting contest to “win a million bucks,” which was won by Robert Geeve (the check must still be in the mail). The other prize winners were: Jeff Dolan, Cathy Hill, Paul Sapata and Robin Kramer (closest to the pin); Joe O’Malley and Judy Johnson (longest putt); George Dammer and Elaine Rodriguez (farthest from the pin); and Mari Lou McCann and Tim Dowling (closest to the pin on the second shot). Coordinator Lee Fayette organized the dinner afterwards at Aurelio’s in Lemont, where over half the players enjoyed pizza and some good laughs.

a last moment opportunity to play the Old Course only because it was at 5:30pm. "We'd probably not finish but at least you could say you've been there," said Charles Head, the Fairmont General Manager, who managed to get us on. I can't remember the last time I walked a golf course. But it didn't matter if I had to walk, ride a mule or whatever; nothing was going to keep me from playing. This place speaks to you. You step-out on the first tee box and

Scotland "Was" Great

One of the tough aspects of this job is having to check-out places for future events. Anyone who knows me knows that we would never head to a certain locale without the place being thoroughly vetted. So in mid-August, I got my first opportunity to visit St. Andrews, Scotland and a variety of venues. It's amazing to think before you go that you are going to do "x" and upon departure from their country, you've ruled-out "x" and start planning for "y." Then, a week later, you're looking at "z."

I know that ultimately, going to Scotland is one of life's great experiences and my purpose for going there was to find out what we needed to provide to you that would be over and above your expectation. I also realize that the better the value, the more we'll have in attendance.

Playing the Old Course: We've all thought about going there and the feeling we'd have playing the Old Course, you know, coming in on the eighteenth hole and tens of thousands cheering us on. You could play at midnight and have the same feeling. I had you feel the history, you feel the ground almost talking to you. You feel the presence of all the greats who have preceded you. On every hole, something big has happened at some point in time in history. My only regret was in not reading everything I could about past championships, memorizing those relevant events in my head and re-living them as I played the course. I'll know next time.

A large, 61% of you, in our Scotland survey, said that if you went to Scotland, playing the Old Course would be a must play. It's 100% impossible for a group our size (projected to be 100-125 players based on the survey) to play it, so playing the Old Course will be something you'll have to handle on your own (see SinglesGolf.com/scotland for annual or daily-ballot information). But in the meantime, we're lining-up some great courses, some courses you'll be happy to tell your friends, kids and grandkids about.

This will simply be a great trip and you'll meet friends you never thought you had. Details forthcoming. We promise you'll be impressed with the venue and price. When the final package is completed, we'll e-mail you and post to SinglesGolf.com/scotland. So . . . stay tuned!

New Year's Will Be at the Omni / Orlando!

Go to SinglesGolf.com/newyears for details of this event. We're very happy to return to the Omni at ChampionsGate!
