SEPTEMBER 21ST - FALL SCRAMBLE AT CARRIAGE GREENS GC

President's Message

Fall is my favorite time of the year and I so look forward to spending time on the links during this upcoming season with my fellow ASGAers. We have a couple of outings in store for all of you which I hope you will consider attending. One new event that will occur is the glowball event at Nickol Knoll Golf Club in Arlington Heights on Thursday, September 26 hosted by Marie DiVirgilio. I have never tried this and am so looking forward to the outing!

Hopefully, you know my feelings about being mindful of pace of play. For the most part, I am seeing an effort in trying to play in a reasonable amount of time. Playing a round of golf should take place in about 4.5 hours. After you have hit your ball, start analyzing what club you are going to use for your next shot; when you approach the greens, quickly figure out where to put your clubs/cart so that it is in the vicinity close to the next tee box; analysis on the greens before you putt should be short. I'm discovering that there are people who are talking on their cell phones on the course. Unless there is a dire emergency, cell phones should not be used. It is very distracting for the other players which I have experienced myself. If there is anyone who would like to discuss this matter with me, I will gladly talk to you. (I'm sure she means in person, not on a cell phone. ed.)

A big thank you to the following coordinators for the month of August: Michael Daugherty, Ted Zilmer, (Tim Dowling and Bill Forcade: Club Championship), Kathi Maraffino, Scott Wilson, Kim Armatys, (Jay Thompson: Ravinia) and MariLou McCann. Congrats to Dave Colbert and Kathy Braun on becoming the 2013 Chicago ASGA Champions. I think most agreed that the event at Ravinia with Chicago was a great success. It was a trip down memory lane for me. How fun was it to be singing, dancing, wining, dining, laughing, star gazing and maybe being just a little silly?!!! Thanks to all who helped make my evening a great one!

Please check out the upcoming events that are noted in this newsletter and I do hope to see you on the links or at the 19th Hole!! ~Chris

Past Events Mistwood

Mistwood GC in Romeoville garnered 24 players under beautiful summer skies on August 3rd. Julie Rosch and Robin

Rash were closest to the pin for the ladies, Tim Dowling and Art Garwin for the men. Showing everyone how to putt on fast greens, MariLou McCann and Paul Gentile had the longest putt on the final hole. Food and drinks were partaken of in the clubhouse afterwards.

Mill Creek

On July 21st, a superb day in the mid 80's with mild wind, 26 participants golfed Mill Creek Golf Club in Geneva. Marie DiVirgilio won not only the long drive for women, but also one of the proximity holes. Cathy Hill won the other women's proximity and Mike Kross hit the longest drive among the men. Lyn Dickinson and Hari Kannan won the two proximities for the men. New member Tony Broaddus sunk the longest putt among all players. Mike Kross won a prize for losing the most balls. We won't say how many were lost, but after receiving the dozen new golf balls, he was still one under. Though not on an official prize hole, Joann Graske came the closest to hitting Cathy Hill with an errant shot. Not the approved way to treat the coordinator, though a possible new game for next season. Should anyone have access to a store mannequin, we could place it in one of the fairways. Per-

Rules and More Rules

Recording golf score higher than actually made.

Q. In tournament golf, players keep each other's scores. The scorer is called the marker, and the marker keeps score for the competitor. In the 1968 Masters, Roberto De Vincenzo's final day round saw him shoot a 31 on the front nine and a 34 on the back nine for a score of 65. However, De Vincenzo's playing partner and marker on Sunday was, Tommy Aaron. Unfortunately Aaron put down a 4 for De Vincenzo on the 17th hole when the Argentinian actually had made a birdie 3. The submitted scorecard totaled a final round of 66 rather than the correct score of 65. The critical issue, a 65 would tie De Vicenzo with Bob Goalby forcing a Monday Masters playoff.

It's the player's responsibility to ensure his scorecard is accurate before he signs it. De Vincenzo didn't. He signed an incorrect score card. What was the correct ruling?

- A. Both De Vincenzo & Tommy Aaron were disqualified for submitting an incorrect scorecard
- B. Tommy Aaron was awarded 2 stroke penalty for recording an incorrect score on his competitor's score card, De Vincenzo's score was corrected by tournament officials to the correct score of 65. The Monday playoff was one of the most exciting in Masters' history.
- C. De Vincenzo score of 66 stood as submitted. Tommy Aaron received no penalty.

AND THE ANSWER IS:

The answer is C. De Vincenzo's score stood as submitted. He came in second to Bob Goalby in the 1968 Masters. His incorrect scorecard cost him the a playoff opportunity. Rule 6-6.d applies. The competitor is responsible for the correctness of his score recorded for each hole on his score card. If he returns a score for any hole higher than actually taken, the score as returned stands.

De Vincenzo finished second at the 1968 Masters and Bob Goalby was the winner. When De Vincenzo realized his mistake, he exclaimed "What a stupid I am!" Words that live on in golf history. De Vincenzo never won another major, although he did win the PGA Tour's Houston Open three weeks later. Tommy Aaron won the 1973 Masters, where, ironically, he caught a mistake on his scorecard made by his playing partner.

The scorecard incident has overshadowed the fact that Goalby was the winner, but Goalby did his part to earn the Green Jacket, closing with a final-round 66. Goalby won 11 times on the PGA Tour. His nephew is Jay Haas.

Recording golf score lower than actually made.

Q. In the 2007 PGA Championship, Sergio Garcia's playing partner and marker on Saturday was, Boo Weekley. Boo put down a 4 for Garcia on the 17th hole when the Spaniard had actually made a 5.

It's the player's responsibility to ensure his scorecard is accurate before he signs it. Garcia didn't. He signed an incorrect score card.

What was the correct ruling?

- A. Both Sergio and Weekly were disqualified for submitting an incorrect scorecard
- B. Sergio was disqualified for submitting an incorrect score card. Weekly received no penalty.
- C. Both Sergio and Weekly were awarded 2 stroke penalties for submitting an incorrect scorecard

AND THE ANSWER IS:

The answer is B. Sergio was disqualified from the 2007 PGA Championship because of a scorecard error. Rule 6-6d is the applicable rule. A competitor is responsible for the correctness of the score recorded for each hole on his score card. If he returns a score for any hole lower than actually taken, he is disqualified.

If you score a lower number than your card reflects but sign the card, you are stuck with the higher number. If you sign your card and your score reflects a lower score than you actually shot, you are DQ'd for signing a wrong score card.
