Chicago Chapter - American Singles Golf Association - October 2018

FUN - FELLOWSHIP - FAIRWAYS

2018 Golf Events

We have now completed the 31 outings for the 2018 ASGA schedule. Only Glenview Park had to be cancelled due to rainy weather (twice) and will not be played this year. During September we played 8 outings. The last outing on September 30th was touch and go but 15 of us braved the conditions and finished the round. Thanks to the members for suggesting at least 4 courses that I have never played before. These outings helped me add some interesting courses to the schedule for 2018. I would also like to thank Tom U., Tim D. and Jay T. for adding several outings -- some traditional, 1 memorial, a First Tee event and a trip to Indianapolis to our agenda.

I have enjoyed my 2 years of being your Golf Chairperson and look forward to playing with all the great members we have again next year. I'm sure Marie Bush, who will be taking my place, will carry on the tradition of great golf outings for the ASGA for years to come!

Again, I would like to thank the coordinators that donated their time and efforts to make this season a very successful one. If anyone still has a box to be turned in please let me know.

Enjoy every day that life brings you on the golf course!!!!

For anyone needing to contact me my email address is thomasschweih@comcast.net.

On a cool, windy day (September 8), twelve golfers played at Whitetail Ridge in Yorkville. Scott Wilson coordinated with assistance from Robin Rash. The staff was great to work with and everything went well. Rick Bachman stuck it close to the pin and Kamal Dagher also had a great shot to get closest to the pin. Rick also hit a bender and won the longest putt award. A small group gathered at Scott's house for after-round food and drink.

Bonnie Linklater hosted the Winnetka Golf Course (101 years old!) outing on September 9 for 17 golfers. We had a very pleasant, breezy day with plenty of sunshine. We were lucky enough to be able to use carts. There is not a continuous cart path so it can be an issue if you have a period of wet and rainy conditions. The winner for a new game of "fewest putts on par 3's and 5's" was Kathy Hendrickson in a tie breaker. Other winners were: Kurt Kupitz for closest to the pin; Rick Bachman for longest drive and Kathy Hendrickson for longest putt. Dinner was held at Fred's Garage in Winnetka --- a fun place with great service.

Harborside International in Chicago hosted fourteen golfers on September 15. Weather conditions were near perfect with the temperature around 80 and a slight breeze. Rick Bachman coordinated and wants to give special thanks to his assistant, Linda Ciprella, for finding and suggesting the post-round dinner venue. She was instrumental in helping Rick successfully get through his first coordinating event. Everyone enjoyed the course, which was in excellent condition, and was glad that it was added to the rotation. Tim Dowling had his game going strong and took 2 of 3 prize holes -- hitting a great shot to the difficult par 3 proximity hole and then snaking in a double-breaking 50 ft. putt to win longest putt. Mike Madden properly judged the crosswinds and placed his tee shot right in the center of the driving accuracy hole. The staff (Brian Jordan & company) was very friendly and accommodating. They were genuinely grateful that we chose to play their course and look forward to our return next year. Dinner was at Horse Thief Hollow in nearby Beverly. 🦋 Thirteen of the fourteen golfers attended dinner - great participation! Everyone enjoyed the atmosphere and commented that the food was good and drink selections (craft beer) were unique and good.

Sanctuary Golf Course was the site of the September 16 outing. Jennifer Gibson was the coordinator. Thirteen golfers enjoyed the beautiful July-like day that made it easy to forget that it was almost Fall. Prize winners were Alice Zyks for closest to the hole (#4), Dave Halper for closest to the hole (#11) and putter extraordinaire, Cathy Hill, for longest putts on #9 and #18. Dinner and prizes were in the clubhouse after the round.

New ASGA uniforms?

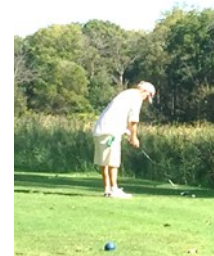

Fourteen golfers attended the Prairie Isle Golf Club outing in Prairie Grove on September 22 with perfect Fall weather --- coordinated by Cindy Pausic. Most of us had not golfed this course before but were pleasantly surprised by what a great course it was with fun, interesting holes throughout. We lost our share of balls with the Fall leaves and the long drives that we were sure were in the fairway but somehow disappeared once we passed the hills in front of us. The day's winners were Jay Thompson (longest putt #9), Alice Zyks (longest putt #10), and Marie Bush (closest to the pin #17). Additionally, Alice won the drawing for a free two-some that the course generously provided. We were also happy to welcome first timer, Laurie Werner. After golf we enjoyed a great dinner at Lindy's Landing in Wauconda. While we appreciated our private room, we agreed that we want to go back and sit outside in the summer months watching the boats go by.

Deborah Backman was the coordinator for the golf outing at Palatine Hills Golf Course on September 23.

Fourteen golfers enjoyed an absolutely perfect weather day! The course was in great condition in spite of the severe water/flood damage on the last four holes from all the early September rain. Staff was very accommodating and helpful, nice to work with. Because it was late September, they gave us Fall rates. A creative game was played --- golfers were asked to keep track of putts and then a drawing was held to see whether the most or least number would win for men and women. The result was a win for Pam Prest with the most putts and for Rick Bachman for the least putts. Additionally, Loren Mercola and Tom Schweihs won for closest to the line. Due to the early start time, only four men went on to dinner. Most were anxious to watch the Bear's game and Tiger's TOUR Championship win.

Tom Schweihs hosted the September 29 Bridges of Poplar Creek event in Hoffman Estates. Nine golfers attended on a relatively chilly day with the low 50's at tee off. Several players said that the contest should have been for the most lost balls. The creek and the lakes on the golf course were just in the right spots to catch our wavering shots. However, Tom Golbach and Kurt Kupitz both sank amazing birdie putts on a very difficult par 3. Awards for longest putts went to Ruth Wiechmann Browne and Tom Golbach. The staff at the course was very helpful and made our day enjoyable. Dinner was at the Assembly American Bar close to the course Fifteen diehard golfers braved the rain during our last official golf outing on September 30 at Mount Prospect Golf Course. Cindy Pausic was the day's coordinator. The rain continued until the 13th hole but we still had a fun day. Winners were: Rob Lewandowski (longest drive #2), Cindy Pausic (closest to the pin #7) and Laurie Werner (longest putt #17).

Additionally, Mike Madden won a raffled-off coupon. The course provided two free passes which were won in a drawing by Tom Golbach. Many volunteered to help Tom use his passes. We enjoyed dinner and drinks at Brick City Tavern while chatting and watching some of our favorite teams play on the overhead TVs

2019 CDGA Dues Structure

Recently received letter from the CDGA indicating an increase in dues:

“With the end of the 2018 golf season on the horizon, we want to take a moment to thank you for your membership in the CDGA. As we look at the 2019 golf season, we are continuing to analyze the programs we offer our member clubs and individual members. Preparation has also begun for some major changes in the handicapping system as the USGA plans to move all Allied Golf Associations to the World Handicap System on Jan. 1, 2020.

The last time the CDGA increased our individual membership dues was 2000. For almost twenty years, we have managed to keep those dues at $20 per member. Over this time a lot has changed in what we offer our member clubs and individual members. For example, we have invested in new kiosk hardware and software for our member clubs. For individual members, this summer we launched the CDGA Member Advantage and CDGA Member+ programs that increase member benefits.

After careful consideration, we will be making changes to our dues structure going forward, beginning with the 2019 golf season.

The dues structure for your area within the Chicago District will be as follows:

- All Clubs

- Each individual that is activated by the club to become a member of the CDGA will be billed at $30 per golfer.
- Clubs will continue to pay annual dues at $400 or $200 per club, based on the number of holes at the facility. For clubs utilizing more than one CDGA Kiosk, the cost will remain an additional $400 per computer. Annual dues allow clubs to order cardstock at no charge.
- The recommended price to charge individuals who sign up for or renew their CDGA membership in person at your course is $40. This is a suggested way to make the dues structure consistent among all clubs within your area and potentially provide another source of revenue for your club.

- Public Facilities – All public facilities will be required to participate in the online renewal program. When a member renews or joins through CDGA.org, the cost will be $40 and the club will receive $10 in credit. This will be for all member transactions. Please note that if you have a group of golfers that you want to exempt from online renewal, notify us prior to Oct. 15, 2018. We will assist you in putting these golfers in their own league within the club and will designate that they are not eligible to renew online. Online renewal will begin on Nov. 1, 2018.

- Private Facilities – All private facilities continue to have until April 14, 2019 to inactivate members and receive automatic credit.

The CDGA will continue to provide all member clubs with the CDGA Kiosk and full support of all programs we offer throughout the Chicago District. In 2018, we piloted new programs designed to facilitate marketing opportunities for member clubs in an effort to increase play and revenue. The results have been very positive, so if you are interested in learning more about the program, please contact the CDGA's Michael Gilligan, Senior Business Development Director, at mgilligan@cdga.org or (630) 685-2331.

Again, these decisions were made after many months of looking at options and digesting information. In order for us to continue to provide the top-quality service that clubs and individuals expect and deserve, we felt that we had to take this step. We wanted to inform you now so that you can plan accordingly as you prepare your 2019 budget. Please click here for additional information. If you have any questions, please let us know. Note that this email will be followed up with a letter via mail in the coming days.
