SEPTEMBER 15TH - GOLF AT WILLOW CREST

President's Message

September!! Already??!
Where has the summer gone??

No worries though – there are plenty of great ASGA outings left including rescheduled dates for some of the early season rainouts. Check the calendar and the email blasts and sign up with the coordinators.

Speaking of coordinators, please help make their task easier by remembering they have 20-30 golfers to group into pairings. Only request early or late tee times, if necessary for other commitments, and keep in mind that requests for a specific cart partner should come from both players. If you've been a coordinator, you'll understand that special requests can make the tee times setup quite tricky. In the end, it's guaranteed that you'll be paired with someone who shares your love for golf and isn't that the whole point??

Enjoy the late summer weather and wonderful courses still on the schedule!

See you one the links,

~Alice Zyks

Golf Chair Message

The summer is winding down and we only have 10 official outings left for the season. Check the website and watch your emails for reminders to sign up. We have rescheduled some of our rainouts, including Ruffled Feathers. Remember, if you have a raincheck from that outing, you can use it at the rescheduled outing on Sun 9/29. Here's the list of remaining outings:

Thank you to all of those who stepped up to coordinate the remaining outings. They have now all been assigned.

As the local season winds down, don't forget the outings offered by the national office. The next one is in October in the Atlanta area and I'm sure there will be one in Florida around the new year. Check the national website and elsewhere in this newsletter for details.

Scott Wilson hosted 24 golfers at White-tail Ridge and 16 diners after golf at his home on August 4. Big winners were Robin Rash and Cathy Hill for women's proximity; Paul Gentile and Kamal Dagher for men's proximity; and Tim Ryan for longest putt. The course was in great shape and the staff was flexible and helpful. Thanks to Ruth Wiechmann Browne for jumping in to help close out sign in so that the coordinator could go off early and host. Also, thanks to all those who brought sides, desserts and drinks to the cookout.

2019 ASGA Club Championship

The club championship was held on August 11 and 12 hosted by Tim Dowling. Fifteen competitors and two non-competitors played their rounds in record championship time, coming in around 4:15 to 4:20 each day. Congrats to the women's champion, Kathy Braun and the men's champion, Rick Bachman! Tim Ryan won men's low net followed by Rob Lewandowski (2nd low) and Kurt Kupitz (3rd low). Women's low net was won by Marie Bush followed by Linda Ciprella (2nd low). Saturday contest winners were: Linda Ciprella (women's proximity), Rick Bachman (men's proximity), Marie Bush (random draw) and Jay Thompson (random draw). Marie and Linda tied for closest to the pin so drew cards to settle the award. Linda won that draw but then Marie won the random draw for the women so it seemed like karma was in play. Sunday contest winners were: Linda Ciprella (women's proximity), Rick Bachman (men's proximity), Kathy Braun (random draw) and Wayne Thompson (random draw). While a good time was had by all, it was almost unanimous that holes 17 and 18 should be eliminated from the course as many of us struggled with those over-the-water carries each day.

Rick Bachman coordinated the golf outing at Harborside – Starboard on August 17. Twenty golfers braved the threat of rain and were treated to an outstanding day of golf. Several played the course for the first time and complimented its beauty and conditioning. The course was in excellent condition and the staff was very helpful and accommodating to our group. Linda Ciprella and Alice Zyks displayed their golfing skills with pin-seeking shots on the women's proximity holes. The men, on the other hand couldn't hit the broad side of a barn, nor the green on their proximity hole. Rick Seaberg's putting skills were on display as he sunk a 50-foot snaking downhill putt. Not really - it was an uphill 4 footer but it was good enough to take home the prize. Sharon Meyer took the prize for fewest putts on the front nine. Kamal Dagher and Kathy Hendrickson tied for fewest putts on the back nine with Kamal besting Kathy in the "pick a number between 1 and 10" contest. Lesson learned - don't let Kathy place your bets in Vegas. Fourteen golfers met at Horse Thief Hollow for a post-round dinner. They were treated to good food and excellent service.

Thirteen golfers enjoyed Cary Country Club on August 18, hosted by Marie DiVirgilio with assistance from Tim Dowling. Cary

Country Club is a beautiful course with rolling hills and stunning vistas. It is not really a walkable course, but that didn't stop Chris Coyne and Susan Kogan who walked all 18 holes! Susan Kogan even won women's proximity. No men hit the green, but Kurt Kupitz won in a random draw. Players guessed what their final score would be at the end of the round. Best guess was made by Tim Dowling --- only off by one shot. Two players, Chris Coyne and Marie DiVirgilio, scored better than they "guesstimated!"

Sherry Brandys had a shot for the record books. Told in her own words: "The tee-box on the 8th hole had a truly majestic view of the course as the tee-box was significantly elevated. Surrounding the tee-box were railroad ties. I teed up my ball, got into position and swung my club. The ball was struck solid and left the tee like a bullet. Bullets are supposed to fly forward but this bullet hit the railroad tie and shot so hard directly back at me. I think in an effort to protect myself, I simply put my hand out and caught the ball. Then simply replied "Cat Like Reflexes". It was so fast that Kurt Kupitz didn't even know where the ball went. Deb and Cindy saw me catch and gasped thinking I was hurt. Thankfully, I was just fine and we all had a good chuckle. Never to be duplicated!!!!"

After the round, we went to Cary Ale House, a "gastropub". The food was excellent and the beer list extensive. If you are ever in the area, give it a try.

Thunderhawk was attended by 18 players on a perfect (weather-wise) August 24, hosted by Jay Thompson. Jay got creative and so all of the games were a little different from the norm. This resulted in five different winners for these games without having to invoke the "nobody wins more than one" rule. Our closest to the hole contest was actually a chipping contest from the ladies' tee. Since it was only 85 yards, this made for fun for everyone. In the end, the winners were: Ken Kusumoto (proximity), Loren Mercola (longest women's drive), Tom Goldbach (longest men's drive), Ruth Brown (longest women's putt), and Rick Bachman (men's 3rd shot closest to the hole). The staff, especially Alex Eichman who helps with both Countryside and Thunderhawk, made the coordinator's job easier. Ireland, the Beverage Cart Attendant, also deserves special recognition. So big thanks to them. Post golf, the group went to The Shanty for dinner where Jay was overruled on his seating and table arrangements by Tom U. and Rick B. ☺

Marie Bush coordinated the August 25 Orchard Valley event. Eighteen golfers enjoyed the fabulous weather.

Robin Rash won the women's proximity award and Joe Torcivia won the men's. Longest putt award went to Ruth Browne. Most lost balls' award went to Robin with 8! Greg was a contender with 6 and the next runner up was Mike with 5. Additionally, the course provided a certificate for a twosome with cart which was won by Tom Golbach in a random drawing. The course staff was great and very accommodating. Some of the tee boxes and fairways were a bit beat up but the greens were in much better shape than a few years ago. Many people said they loved the course. Dinner was held at the restaurant/bar at the course. It was a disappointment with missing orders and long waits.

A reminder ... please send photos from events to kdhville03@gmail.com to be included in email blasts or to post on FaceBook.
