Mount Prospect Golf Club - Saturday, May 16, 2026

We had an absolutely beautiful day golfing at Mt. Prospect Golf Club on May 16th. All 12 tee times were taken. There were a few people who requested to play after the deadline, but the course had no open tee times to add to our group. So best to not snooze when signing up for outings.

The course was in great shape, and the greens were running fast! Unisex closest to the pin contests were held on holes 4 and 12. No one got on the green on hole 4, and yours truly was closest on number 12. Actually three of four in our group got on the green on 12. Lucky for me, I was closer than Cindy Pausic and Kelan Coffin.

After golf, we gathered in the club house for a bite, drinks, and prizes. Since no one got on the green on hole 4, $25 was raffled off by pulling names from a hat. Kathy Bennett, a Sarasota and Chicago member, was the winner. Also the pro shop was nice enough to provide two 18 hole rain checks which were also raffled. Kurt Kupitz and Sheila Ramacci won the 18 hole rain checks.

It was a fun day! Thanks to all who participated!!

Weekend Trip to Louisville and Southern Indiana – May 23 to May 25

Eight adventurous golfers headed south to play golf for the holiday weekend. Our Saturday round at Covered Bridge Golf Course in Sellersburg, IN was cart path only due to recent rains, but the weather was nice that day. Lots of slogging back and forth from the wet fairways, but a lovely course. Sunday's round was at the sister course of Champion's Point. We were hoping for better weather, but unfortunately it was still cart path only, and it did rain on us for some of the holes. We skipped the last two in order to make it to our bourbon tasting and tour at a local Louisville distillery, where we tasted bourbon, port wine, and moonshine. That evening we went out for a great dinner at a local Louisville restaurant, and enjoyed gathering afterward on the back porch of our rented three story Victorian house in the city for more drinks and conversation. Monday was a beautiful day, and we stopped in De Motte, IN to play at Sandy Pines Golf Course for our final round. No cart restrictions, as they had not had all the rain, so it was a great way to wrap up a fun weekend. Thanks so much to Sheila Ramacci and Bob Davidson for all the work they did setting up this fun weekend trip!

Springbrook Golf Course - Saturday, May 30, 2026

Our Springbrook Golf Course outing was a fun event. The weather was pleasant and we had three foursomes, with a mixture of cart riders and walkers. Most fairways hit was Diane Perini with 11, and Mike Madden won the drawing for longest putt. Food selection was limited at the golf course so a few of us went out afterwards to nearby Lazy Dog. All in all, another enjoyable event with ASGA.

Rules of Golf Review: Understanding 'backstopping' and when it's a penalty

By Ron Kaspriske, GolfDigest.com

Back in 2019, the LPGA Tour found itself in the spotlight for a curious ruling involving two tour players and a practice called "backstopping." If you've never heard the term, tour pros commonly use it to describe purposefully leaving a ball in place on the putting green instead of marking it. The thought is that it can potentially help another player who is hitting an approach shot onto the green. If the player off the green hits a shot that is too hot, the ball on the green might stop it from getting into real trouble.

Rule 15.3 covers this practice and, as you might guess, it's a penalty (two strokes). Getting back to the incident on the LPGA Tour, Ariya Jutanugarn and Amy Olson were paired in the same group at the Honda LPGA Thailand and reached the final hole of the second round with Jutanugarn's ball on the green and Olson's just off. Jutanugarn did not mark her ball and Olson's ensuing chip struck it. The incident got a lot of attention and scrutiny from LPGA officials because the two players fist-bumped on the green, suggesting there might have been some collusion.

The LPGA found in its investigation that the two players did not agree to leave the ball in place and they weren't penalized.

Setting aside your opinion on whether they did or did not collude to backstop, there was a bunch of talk on the pro tours about the practice in the following months, with major championship winner Jimmy Walker saying he left his ball on the green from time to time to help other players.

What you need to know about Rule 15.3 is that in stroke play, regardless of whether you knew the rule or not, you can't agree to leave your ball to help another player—or vice versa. Ignorance is not going to get either of you out of a two-stroke penalty. Worse, if you both know it's illegal and backstop anyway, you both would be DQ'd under Rule 1.3b\(1\) for deliberately ignoring a rule.

Interestingly, however, in match play there is no penalty if you do it for your opponent. That's because "the outcome of any benefit that may come from the agreement affects only their match," a clarification (15.3a/2) to the rule states.

The smart move under Rule 15.3 is to mark and lift your ball if you think it might help another player who is about to chip. Keep in mind that in stroke play, you also can elect to hit the putt before the player chips, because there is no penalty for playing out of order.

Returning to the example of what happened in the LPGA tournament, procedurally if there was no intent to backstop and the ball on the green was struck, that ball must be replaced at its original spot. Meanwhile, the ball that hit the resting ball on the putting surface is played as it lies.

ASGA Annual Dues are $99.00. Do you want LOWER DUES?

HOW WOULD YOU LIKE ONE YEAR OF FREE DUES?

You likely joined the American Singles Golf Association because you wanted to meet more singles and play more golf. We can't help you with your golf swing, however, we're on a mission to grow your chapter's membership. Golf season is upon us . . . are you onboard to grow your chapter or are you satisfied with your current membership level?

Here's the plan:

- 1) on the following page, you'll see a revised "Single? Play Golf?" sign. It now has five (5) tear-off tabs instead of eight (8).
- 2) You write-in your identification (either your member number or first initial + last name) on each of the tabs. Use scissors to cut the tabs apart.
- 3) You print as many signs as you wish, keep them in the front seat of your car along with some push pins and post them anywhere you're permitted to post, e.g. golf shop bulletin boards, golf shop restrooms, driving ranges, stores, etc. If you would like ASGA National to print five (5) yellow signs for you, please let us know by emailing Irene@SinglesGolf.com or calling 980-833-6450 from 9am-1:45pm, M-F, Eastern.
- 4) For every three (3) people who join using your name or ID on the yellow sign, you'll receive 12-months of ASGA membership. Note: your name or member number, as the referrer, must be submitted with the new member's application. No exceptions. No retroactivity. Please do not add your own name to an application form. It must be completed only the by the member currently joining and completing the application.
- 5) New members can join over the phone, at our website (SinglesGolf.com/join), fax, etc., however, they MUST use your member number or name at the time of joining as the person who referred the new member. Again, no exceptions to this policy.
- 6) ASGA National will keep track of how many new members you get credit for and will automatically add 12-months to your membership. Please, no slanting of these rules
